Each party shall provide copies of all Statements of Claim and relevant supporting documents to their respective insurers. The parties shall meet and mediate all claims as soon as possible thereafter. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Mediation process, including the exchange of information and documents shall be completed with 90 days of the filing of a demand for Mediation.

The arbitration shall be in accordance with the Construction Industry Arbitration Rules and Mediation Procedures of the American Arbitration Association ("AAA") then existing subject, to the requirements and limitations set forth herein. The arbitration shall be further subject to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. § 1 et seq., and any applicable state statutes governing arbitration.

(b) Arbitrator's Selection and Authority: Any matters to be arbitrated under this Agreement shall be decided by a single arbitrator selected by agreement of the parties. The appointed arbitrator shall be an impartial person with extensive experience and who has an expert understanding of the crane and rigging industry. If within seven (7) calendar days of either party filing for arbitration, the parties have not agreed on an arbitrator, then the appointment of an arbitrator shall be referred to the AAA office in or nearest to the county in which the related job or project is located. The AAA shall appoint a single arbitrator who is an impartial local person with extensive experience and who has an expert understanding of the crane and rigging industry to serve in this matter. The arbitrator shall have full and complete authority to decide any and all claims that have been properly noticed and preserved in accordance with this Agreement. Any judgment entered by the arbitrator shall be final, binding and non-appealable. The arbitrator is required to enforce the terms of this Agreement, including but not limited to, the determination of the prevailing party for purposes of awarding attorney's fees and costs. Any arbitration between the parties for non-Declaratory Action issues shall be stayed pending any such declaratory judgment action so that the Arbitrator can first decide what claims should proceed forward in arbitration. If the Arbitrator finds that a claim(s) was not properly noticed and preserved and/or was released, then the arbitrator shall dismiss that claim(s) and shall not decide such claim(s). The arbitration shall only proceed after a final decision on any declaratory judgment action brought hereunder and shall only include those claims found to have been properly noticed, preserved and not released. All parties consent to such jurisdiction.

(c) Choice of Law. This Agreement shall be construed according to the laws of the state where the work is performed, unless otherwise determined by law.

The prevailing party in any arbitration shall be the party whose last written settlement offer, as set forth in Section 2 above, is closer to the initial arbitration award, prior to considering costs (including AAA and arbitrator costs), interest, attorney fees and/or expert fees. If the difference between the initial arbitration award and the parties' last settlement offers are equal, then neither party shall be the prevailing party for purposes of an award of attorneys' fees and costs.

(e) Nondisclosure of Settlement Offers to the Arbitrator: Settlement offers shall only be disclosed to the arbitrator after the initial arbitration award has been entered and shall only be used to determine the prevailing party for purposes of the award of attorney's fees and costs.

(f) Venue of Litigation. Any dispute arising out of or relating to this Agreement, or any underlying contract or agreement whether written or oral, or the work to be performed by Lessor or Lessee at any applicable job site, or a breach of this Agreement, or any underlying contract or agreement, whether written or oral, which is not subject to mediation and arbitration under this Agreement or which the parties have mutually waived their right to arbitrate under this Agreement shall be litigated in the state where the work is performed, unless otherwise determined by law. Such action shall proceed in The United States District Court in or nearest to the county in which the related job or project is located. Both parties acknowledge that should litigation ensue, the United States District Court in or nearest to the county in which the related job or project is located, shall have exclusive jurisdiction and venue over any lawsuits arising under this Agreement, or any underlying contract or agreement, whether written or oral, including any motion to confirm

Should either party file any action in court against the other party arising out of a dispute as defined in this Agreement, said Party agrees to transfer the action to the Arbitrator to make any and all decisions concerning any dispute including the authority stated in Section 3, including the authority to decide if the action is a dispute covered by this Agreement. If the Arbitrator decides that the dispute should be decided in accordance with this Agreement, the party that filed the action shall pay all costs incurred by the other party, including attorneys' fees, incurred in dismissing and/or transferring the venue of such matter to the Arbitrator.

(i) Discovery in Arbitration. Discovery in any arbitration hereunder shall be limited to the following and must be done in accordance with the Federal Rules on Civil Procedure: (i) The production of each side's job/project/work files as they are maintained in the ordinary course of business and any file index related to same, with all such documents being produced electronically if reasonably feasible or otherwise in hard copy, in the arbitration venue herein indicated; (ii) Other than the documents produced pursuant to Section 2 and Section 3(e)(i) no other written discovery shall be permitted, except on a showing of good cause to the arbitrator. The party requesting any documents, other than those produced pursuant to Section 2 and Section 3(e)(i) shall be responsible to pay for all costs associated with such production, including attorneys' fees incurred in the review for privilege and relevance, third-party consultant fees and any other costs associated with such production. The payment of all such costs is an express condition precedent to either side's right to any such production. The cost associated with obtaining electronic discovery shall not be taxed to the prevailing party as costs/fees and to the extent this conflicts with any provision in the AAA rules, this provision shall control; (iii) Three (3) fact depositions with one being a corporate representative under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure, if so requested, with all such depositions to take place in the arbitration venue herein indicated; (iv) The opinions and the depositions of any designated expert witnesses. The deposition of all experts that intend to testify or submit opinions at the arbitration hearing must be concluded sixty (60) days before the scheduled arbitration date. Thirty (30) days prior to any expert deposition, all experts that will testify or submit opinions at the final hearing shall provide a report containing all of his/her opinions and all information, documents and facts relied upon in arriving at such opinions, or if no such report is prepared, the subject matter on which the witness is expected to present evidence and a summary of the facts and opinions to which the witness is expected to testify and all information/documents/facts relied upon in arriving at such opinions, along with the witness's qualifications, including a list of all publications authored in the previous 10 years and a list of all other cases in which, during the previous 4 years, the witness testified as an expert at trial or by deposition and a statement of the compensation to be paid for the study and testimony in the case; (v) Each party shall be entitled to have the arbitrator issue six subpoenas for documents. The other side shall be entitled to a copy of all documents provided in response to any third-party subpoena, provided however, that it has to pay for the costs of reproduction, but shall be entitled to use a third party to make such copies; and (vii) No other discovery shall be permitted by the Arbitrator, unless mutually agreed to by the parties, upon good cause shown.

(j) These sections and provisions (including all sub-parts) shall survive the termination of this Agreement, or any related or underlying contract and/or completion of the related work or project.
